Book Nook

Notes from Mrs. M & the Library!

What we are learning 4/17/24!

- PreK 4: I read the story by Wendi Silvano Turkey's Eggcellent Easter. This story is an example of a author writing to entertain us.
- PreK 3: I read Cordroy's Easter to them. This was flip book.
- Kindergarten: We are continuing learning and reviewing the Author Jan Brett. I read the story The Easter Egg. This is a story about some bunnies who tried to make the best easter egg. Then we did a sequence picture of the story and then drew pictures of the story sequence.
- First Grade: We continued with call numbers and played a game called Call Number Delivery.
- Second Grade: We had finished the bat research but they needed to write a complete sentences so we worked on writing complete sentences.
- Third Grade: They worked with finding words in the dictionary and then writing the two guide words next to the word they looked up.
- Fourth Grade: They finished answering the questions I had given them that they needed to find using an atlas.
- Fifth/Sixth Grade: They came into the library to find books that were in the nonfiction section. They needed to write down the title and the call number. This search also included the biography section.
- Seventh/ Eighth Grade: We reviewed what they had done. Reminding them to underline the title of the book. This time they needed to re-write the 3 sections that people had written and find the wrong item and correct it. Then tell if it was narrative or parenthetical citation.
